Woman sues over dog lost in Katrina

DOYLESTOWN, Pa. A New Orleans woman wants her ten-year-old son's pet dog returned.

And Sheila Combs, who lost "Rocket" during Hurricane Katrina, is suing the suburban Philadelphia family that adopted it and the two kennels that processed the pooch.

The lawsuit also seeks unspecified damages. It alleges the kennels "wrongfully adopted out" Rocket after the dog was sent to Pennsylvania following its hurricane rescue.

And the suit also claims the couple who adopted the now two-year-old chow-Finnish spitz mix has reneged on promises to return it.
